Apparently, the alleged defalcated amount was recovered.

Petitioner as a cashier of a bank stands implicated in a case of cheating.

Materials in the case diary suggest that the amount claimed to be cheated was recovered and deposited in the respective bank accounts of the customers.

Police filed charge sheet.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Considering the nature of the injury suffered in the incident, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 (2) of the B.N.S.S., 2023. The petitioner shall appear on every date before the Jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
