IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Circuit Bench at Jalpaiguri

CRR 310 of 2022
With
CRAN 1 of 2023

Mudit Bajoria & Anr.
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Aditi Shankar Chakraborty,
Mr. A. Chowdhury,
.....for the State.

None appears on behalf of the petitioner on first call.
None appears on second cal., It is now 12.50 p.m.

State is represented.

Learned advocate for the State submits that there is no merit in the instant criminal revision. The prayer for quashing cannot be entertained. He submits that the entire criminal revision may be disposed of.

Heard the learned advocate for the State.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it appears to me that the instant criminal revisional application is preferred for quashing for the entire proceeding of NJP Police Station case no.1305/22 dated 15.12.2022 under Sections 341/504/506/34 of the IPC read with Section 3(1)(c) of the Scheduled Casts and Scheduled Tribes Prevention of Atrocities

Act now pending before the Learned Additional District Judge, 1st Special Court, Jalpainguri.

Considering the conduct of the present petitioner, it appears that the petitioner is not in a intention to proceed with the instant criminal revision. Accordingly, the instant revisional application be dismissed for default.

Any interim order passed by this Court during the pendency of the instant criminal revision is hereby also vacated.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
