ORDER

09.12.2024

1. At the time of institution of present bail petition filed on 15.02.2022, the investigation in the case was afoot.
2. In terms of an order dated 18.02.2022 read with an order dated 24.02.2022, this Court came to admit the petitioner-Shehraj Ahmed on interim bail viz FIR No. 0136/2021 registered by the Police Station Darhal, Rajouri for alleged commission of offences under sections 452/354 Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 and which later on said to have been joined by an accusation of commission of offence under section 376 Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 as well.

3. During the pendency of this bail petition, a Final Police Report/Challan under Section 173 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 is said to have been presented and in which even some of the prosecution witnesses have also come to be examined meaning thereby the petitioner is attending the trial without jumping the bail cover though interim, as granted by this Court in terms of the above referred two orders.
4. Accordingly, this court feels no purpose of keeping the bail petition for any further adjudication and disposes of this petition by confirming the interim bail granted in terms of the order dated 18.02.2022 read with the order dated 24.02.2022 as a regular bail granted subject to terms and conditions as the trial court of Sessions Judge, Rajouri may deem it fit and proper in its discretion to impose against the petitioner for ensuring the due attendance of the petitioner in the trial.
5. A copy of this order be forwarded to the court of learned Sessions Judge, Rajouri for notice and compliance with respect to imposing of terms and conditions of bail hereby being granted in favour of the petitioner.
6. Bail App No. 45/2022 is disposed of accordingly.

7. In view of the aforesaid development, the petition-CRM(M) No. 81/2022 filed by the petitioner invoking section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for quashment of FIR No. 0136/2021 has been rendered infructuous which is also, accordingly, dismissed.
