Bail App No. 109/2024

The applicant has preferred the instant bail application for grant of anticipatory bail as he is apprehending his arrest in FIR No. 0103/2024 dated 01.05.2024 for commission of offences under Sections 376,420,406,504,506, 34 IPC registered with Police Station Bahu Fort, Jammu. The complainant/prosecutrix in this case has appeared through her counsel and has stated that she has no objection in granting the benefit of anticipatory bail to the applicant. The said concession given by the prosecutrix herself through her counsel, is opposed by the learned counsel for the Union Territory.

Under the circumstances, objection of learned counsel for the Union Territory notwithstanding, the application is allowed, and it is ordered that in the event of arrest of the applicant he shall be released on bail, subject to the furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/-and one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Investigating Officer, on the following terms and conditions:-

- (i) That the applicant shall join investigation as and when called upon by the police by issuance of notice under Section 160 Cr. P.C;
- (ii) That he shall not try to harass the complainant or try to influence her;
- (iii) That he shall not temper with prosecution evidence directly or indirectly.

CRM (M) No. 398/2024

The instant petition has been filed for quashment of FIR No. 103/2024.

Learned counsel for both the parties informed this Court that parties want a closure of the case.

Under the circumstances, the parties shall appear before the Registrar Judicial of this Court for recording of their statements on 15.07.2024, thereafter, case shall be placed before this Court along with the statements of the prosecutrix, the complainant and the report of the Registrar Judicial on 16.07.2024.

PSI, Mohd Altaf has appeared pursuant to the directions of this Court and his future attendance is dispensed with.
