ORDER
03.06.2024

01. This Court in terms of an order dated 06.05.2024 sent for the record of the case just for the sake of satisfaction as to whether the proceedings are being conducted in a proper manner so as to dispel an apprehension of the applicant the father of Miss Minal Kour who is the petitioner in an execution petition pending before the Additional District Judge, Family Court, Jammu.

02. Perusal of the record of the case shows that the confusion is operating at the level of as to how much of the arrears in actual is payable from the end of the applicant towards the petitioner-daughter, whereas the recurring liability is for payment of Rs.

5,000/- per month from the end of the applicant towards the petitioner-daughter.

03. As per the interim orders passed by the Court below, it seems that both sides have been asked to submit statements of account as to how much amount has been paid to and received from the respective ends to which the applicant seems to have not responded till date and it is reported by the learned counsel for the petitioner-daughter that from her end the requisite statement has been placed on record showing the arrears.

04. This Court is disposing of this matter with a direction unto the applicant to ensure first that recurring monthly maintenance of Rs. 5,000/- payable in favour of the petitioner-daughter is deposited with the Nazir of the Additional District Judge, Family Court, Jammu without any fail and secondly, the court below shall endeavour at its own to figure out from the record and also from the examination of the parties or their respective counsel whosoever, including Advocate-S. Gurcharan Singh, as to how much is actually payable in terms of the arrears and, accordingly, come up with a figure which is found to be arrears recoverable from the applicant's end and payable towards the petitioner-daughter.

05. The matter is, thus, disposed of.
