(ORDER)

15.04.2025

01. This Court, in terms of an order dated 13th of December, 2024, granted indulgence in favour of the petitioner by extending him bail on medical grounds which was to last for four months from the date of his release from the jail custody.

02. The grant of short-term bail in favour of the petitioner was by keeping in view the reported medical condition of the petitioner in particular relating to his pre-existing heart ailment.

03. Pursuant to his release from the jail on bail in terms of said order dated 13th of December, 2024, the petitioner is said to have submitted himself for medical treatment in the Max Healthcare and Apollo Hospital, New Delhi wherefrom the petitioner was already getting medical treatment and consultation relatable to his heart ailment.

04. Upon seeing that the period of four months bail is coming to expire on 14th of April, 2025, while the petitioner has been advised to admit himself in the Hospital on 7th of May, 2025 as per the medical advice of Dr. Vanita Arora, MD, DNB (Cardiology) of Apollo Heart Institutes, Delhi, the petitioner has come up with an application seeking extension of the bail period on consideration of the medical advice related to the petitioner.

05. The petitioner is said to have complied with all the terms and conditions of the bail order dated 13th of December, 2024.

06. The application for seeking extension of bail CrIM No. 577/2025 filed on 7th of April, 2025 is accompanied with relevant medical prescriptions related to the petitioner confirming the medical consultation related to the petitioner during the bail period.

07. In view of the continuing state of affairs attending the petitioner's health, this Court is inclined to extend the bail duration otherwise reserved for four months in terms of order dated 13th of December, 2024 upto 30th of June, 2025 which is, accordingly, so extended.

08. CrIM No. 577/2025 is, thus, disposed of.
