CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH KUMAR

For the Petitioner : Md. Faiyaj Alam, Adv.
For the State : Mr. Anup Pawan Topno, A.P.P.

03/Dated: 03rd December, 2024

1. Heard the parties.

2. Present criminal revision application has been filed for setting aside the order dated 30.06.2022 passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Godda in Original Maintenance Case No.97 of 2018 under Section 125 of the Cr.P.C, whereby, maintenance of Rs.10,000/- per month has been awarded to the wife and Rs.5,000/- per month each has been awarded to the minor son and daughter.

3. It appears that the parties are related with marriage and the marriage has been solemnized on 22.06.2005 as per Hindu Rites and Rituals. They have been blessed with two children. It also appears that the allegation of adultery has been made against the wife and a petition for divorce has also been filed.

4. The Family Court has framed the issue and has considered all the evidence brought on record by the parties and finding has been recorded that the wife has a reasonable reason to reside separately. The income of the revisionist has been assessed as Rs.80,000/- per month.

5. Considering the above parameters, meagre amount Rs.10,000/- per month has been awarded to the wife and Rs.5,000/- per month each to the minor son and daughter.

6. I do not find any reason to entertain the present criminal revision application. Accordingly, the same is hereby, dismissed.

7. Pending Interlocutory Application No.11838 of 2024 which has been filed for condoning the delay in preferring the present criminal revision also stands dismissed.
