Order No.06 Date: 05.12.2024

1. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case for the offences punishable under Sections 498A and 34 of the Indian Penal Code

2. The present anticipatory bail application was earlier taken up on 28th November, 2024 and on the said date following order was passed:-

> "1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the mediation proceeding between the petitioner and the opposite party no.2 at JHALSA, Ranchi has failed, yet the petitioner is ready to take the opposite party no.2 to his residence. He further submits that the petitioner shall keep the opposite party no.2 as his wife with full dignity and honour.
> 2. Considering the said submission, let the petitioner and the opposite party no.2 remain physically present before this Court on the next date fixed.
> 3. Put up this case under the heading "For Orders" on 5th December, 2024.
> 4. Till then, interim order dated 23rd September, 2024 shall continue."

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, the petitioner and the opposite party no.2 are physically present before this Court. The petitioner submits that he is ready to take the opposite party no.2 to his house today itself. He further assures this Court that he will be keeping the opposite party o.2 as his wife with full dignity and honour.

4. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and keeping the aforesaid submission of the petitioner, above named, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the petitioner, in event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within three weeks from today, shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount, each, to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Giridih, in connection with Complaint Case no.1144 of 2023, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S., 2023.
