statement has stated that she left her house on her own volition and went with the applicant on his motorcycle and visited many places by motorcycle as well as by bus and train. However, there is no evidence available on record that the prosecutrix ever tried to escape or raised any alarm against the present applicant. She is a major woman aged about 20 years. There is delay in lodging FIR and no plausible explanation has been put forth by the prosecution in regard to delay in lodging FIR. At the most, this is a case of consensual sexual relationship. The applicant is in custody since 05/10/2023. Investigation stands completed by filing of the charge sheet and further custodial interrogation of the applicant may not be required. The applicant is permanent resident of District Ashoknagar. Conclusion of trial is likely to take time and there is no likelihood of his absconsion, if released on bail. On these grounds, he prays for grant of bail to the applicant.

Per contra, learned counsel for the State vehemently opposed the bail application and prayed for its dismissal.

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties and perused the case diary available on record.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, but without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, this application is allowed and it is directed that the applicant be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) with one solvent surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

This order will remain operative subject to compliance of the following conditions by the applicant:-

1) The applicant will comply with all the terms and conditions of the bond executed by him;
