The present petition, under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has been filed by the petitioner against the in-action on the part of the respondents in not giving the sixth pay commission to the petitioner from 1.1.2006.

2 . Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in respect of the grievance of the petitioner, he has preferred a series of representation from Annexure P/3 to P/7 but but the same have not been considered till date by the respondents. A limited prayer has been made by counsel for the petitioner that if the respondents/authorities are directed to decide the pending representation in accordance with law in a time bound manner, his grievance would be redressed.

3. Per contra, learned Additional Advocate General appearing on advance copy on behalf of respondents/State submits that if such directions are issued, he has no objection.

4. Looking to the limited prayer made by the counsel for the petitioner which is not opposed by the counsel for the respondents/State, this petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent/Competent Authority to decide the representation of the petitioner (Annexure P/3) by passing a reasoned and speaking order within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the certified copy of this order in accordance with law. However, it is made clear that this Court has not gone into the merits of the case.

5. With the aforesaid directions, the petition is disposed off.

E-copy/certified copy as per rules.
