This petition coming on for hearing this day, the court passed the following:

ORDER

The present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is directed against the order dated 30.10.2006 passed by respondent No.2, whereby illegally the services of the petitioner had been terminated.

The matter pertains to the year 2006 and now the petitioner would have been retired from the service.

This Court finds that by the afflux of time the present petition had lost its efficacy and also since nobody is representing the petitioner, therefore, it appears that nothing survives in this petition to be further adjudicated upon.

In view of above and in absence of any representation, the present petition is hereby dismissed.
