ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of rule for respondent – State of Gujarat.
2. The present application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11210015230076/2023 registered with the DCB Police Station, Surat for the offence punishable under Sections 409, 419, 465, 467, 468, 471, 120(B) and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. Learned advocate for the applicant submitted that the so-called incident has taken place for the period between 01.05.2022 to 17.04.2023, for which, the FIR has been lodged on 17.04.2023 and the applicant has been arrested in connection with the same on 23.08.2023 and since then, he is in judicial custody. Learned advocate submitted that now the investigation is completed and after submission of the chargesheet, the present application is preferred. Learned advocate submitted that all the offences are exclusively triable by the Court of Magistrate and based upon documentary evidence and all the documents have already been collected by the IO during the course of investigation. Learned advocate, under the instructions, submitted that the applicant is ready and willing to deposit Rs.3,50,000/- before the concerned trial court without prejudice to his rights and contentions within a period of three months from the date of his release and in support of it, the brother of the applicant has filed an undertaking and after coming out from the jail, the applicant will also file similar undertaking. It is, therefore, urged that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

4. Learned APP for the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence. It is submitted that the role of the present applicant is clearly spelt out from the papers of the chargesheet and, hence, the present application may not be entertained.
5. Learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.
6. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers of the investigation and considered the allegations levelled against the applicant and the role played by the applicant. It is found out from the record that the present application is preferred after submission of the chargesheet and now the investigation is completed and the applicant is in jail since 23.08.2023. All the offences are exclusively triable by the Court of Magistrate and entire case of the prosecution hinges upon documentary evidence, which have been collected by the IO. Further as stated above, the applicant is ready and willing to deposit Rs.3,50,000/- before the concerned trial court without prejudice to his rights and contentions within three months and he will also file an undertaking to that effect. Therefore considering the above factual aspects, the present application deserves to be allowed.

7. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012] 1 SCC 40 as well as in case of Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2022) 10 SCC 51.
8. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.

9. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11210015230076/2023 registered with the DCB Police Station, Surat on executing a personal bond of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;

 - [f] furnish the present address of residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change the residence without prior permission of this Court;
 - [g] deposit Rs.3,50,000/- before the concerned trial court without prejudice to his rights and contentions within a period of three months from the date of his release and shall also file an undertaking to that effect before the concerned trial court within a week from the date of his release and shall abide by the same;

10. The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the concerned Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter. Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.
11. At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.
