CORAM : S. G. MEHARE, J.
DATE : 08.05.2024

PER COURT :-

1. On the last occasion, the learned counsel for the appellants sought time to file an application for extension of time to deposit the money as per the orders of this Court. However, no application as such has been filed. He submits that till date, the department has not received the money. Sufficient time has been passed from the date granting time to deposit the money. Even today, the appellant is not sure how much time he will require to receive the money. In view of that matter, the order granting interim stay dated 19.10.2023 stands vacated.

2. Consequently, the stay applications stand dismissed.
