PER COURT :-

3. The deceased and the applicant were friends. It has been alleged against the applicant that he called the deceased near bridge. The assailant came there lateron and assaulted the deceased with knife. The prosecution has further case that investigation is going on about the role played by the applicant.

4. Perused the papers placed on record. It seems that the main assailant came on the spot after reaching the deceased and the applicant there. The assailant assaulted the deceased with knife. The applicant has been doubted only for the reason that he was the silent spectator. However, there are no allegations of conspiracy or enmity with the deceased.
