CORAM : MANGESH S. PATIL AND SHAILESH P. BRAHME, JJ.
DATE : 04 JANUARY 2024.

FINAL ORDER :

. We have heard the petitioner in person for a short while.
Previous Bench has passed following order on 12 December 2023.

. The learned advocate appointed to assist us points out that the order dated 23rd July, 2015 is passed in Criminal Writ Petition No.910 of 2015. The said order indicates that the present petitioner was the very petitioner therein. He was represented by an advocate. The order indicates that it was dismissed after going through the statements of two witnesses. Then the petitioner approached the trial Court twice and urged for discharge. His both applications were turned down on merits. Then he approached this Court challenging the order refusing to grant him discharge. The learned Single Judge vide order dated 15th January, 2019 dismissed the Criminal Writ Petition No.672 of 2018. The learned appointed advocate also submits that the petitioner has filed number of complaints against the Management. He has remedy under section 156(3) of the Criminal Procedure Code, if the police did not take cognizance.

2. We find there is no merit in the petition. Considering the number of pages, it will take not less than 4-5 hours to go through the record and hear the petitioner-in-person. We, therefore, defer this matter to 4th January, 2024.

3. The amount quantified of the learned advocate appointed to assist this Court to be paid immediately by the High Court Legal Services Sub-Committee, Aurangabad.
