NEERAJ P. DHOTE, JJ
DATE : 25th SEPTEMBER, 2024

PER COURT :

1. These are the applications for suspension of sentence and grant of bail.

2. Learned counsel for the applicants submit that this Court as well as the Principal Seat of Bombay High Court have suspended the substantive sentence of the co-convicts and granted them bail. Present applicants are, therefore, entitled for the same relief on the ground of parity.

3. Though learned A.P.P. does not dispute the said factual aspect, he opposes the applications on the ground that the applicants are having criminal antecedents.

4. Necessary details of the co-convicts, who are granted bail, are as follows :-

5. Admittedly, the applicants stand on parity with the other co-convicts. We reproduce the relevant observations of this Court in order dated 01st August, 2024 passed in Criminal Application No. 2240 of 2018, as under :-

“4. There is no dispute that the Principal Seat of this Court at Mumbai vide order dated 1st February, 2024 passed in Interim Application No. 3768 of 2022 in Criminal Appeal No. 263 of 2019 [Mauli @ Dnyaneshwar S. Gunjal vs. State of Maharashtra] granted bail to the Applicant therein on the ground of long incarceration. Further, there is also no dispute that this Court by orders dated 16th April, 2024 passed in Criminal Application No. 1367 of 2024 and and 28th June, 2024 passed in Criminal Application No. 2426 of 2024 released the co-convicts on bail on the ground of long incarceration. Admittedly, none of the parties have moved before the Principal Seat of this Court for clubbing the Appeals and, therefore, there is no possibility that the Appeals would be heard in the near future.”

6. In view of above, we proceed to pass the following order on the ground of long incarceration :-

ORDER
