PRAFULLA S. KHUBALKAR, JJ.

DATE : 14th November, 2024

Per Court :-

The learned advocate for the petitioner, at the outset, submits that the petitioner is merely seeking that his representation dated 29.04.2021 (Exhibit C) is considered on its own merits. The learned advocate, on instructions, makes it abundantly clear that the petitioner is not interested either in challenging his termination or punishment inflicted subsequently, now that he stands superannuated.

2. In the light of the statement being made by the learned advocate for the petitioner, we dispose of the Writ

Petition directing respondent No.3 to consider the petitioner's representation Exhibit C and take appropriate decision in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible and in any case within eight weeks.
