Ms. M. N. Ghanekar, APP for Respondents

Mr. K. R. Doke, Advocate for Informant

CORAM : R.M. JOSHI, J

DATE : NOVEMBER 25, 2024

COMMON ORDER :

1. Mr. Doke, learned Counsel, has filed applications on behalf of Informant to assist APP.

2. Having regard to the nature of offence, Criminal Application Nos. 4531/2024 and 4533/2024 are allowed. He is permitted to assist APP.

3. Applicants apprehend arrest in connection with Crime No. 125/2024 registered with Chaklamba Police Station, Dist. Beed for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 324, 504, 506, 143, 147, 148, 149 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

4. First information report shows that an incident has occurred at about 11.50 pm on 20.04.2024 in which the Informant and his father-in-law were said to have been assaulted by the accused herein. The first information report indicates that there are old disputes between the parties. The allegations further shows that iron stand used to hold mic was used as weapon to cause assault. Informant sustained injuries to occipital region. He was taken to hospital and after he was discharged he went to police station and lodged this report.

5. Learned Counsel for the Applicants submit that though allegations are made against present Applicants of causing assault, the incident in question seems to have been occurred spontaneously. It is his submission that the alleged instrument of assault is already seized and as such, nothing is to be recovered from the Applicants. He claims that there is no criminal history against Applicants.

6. Learned APP and learned Counsel for Informant opposed the applications by contending that 13 persons have caused assault on the Informant and that he has sustained grievous injury. Thus, it is their case that since offence is serious in nature, it is not a fit case to grant anticipatory bail.

7. FIR indicates that there are old disputes between the parties. In view of the pre-existing dispute, the possibility of over implication is not ruled out. The informant is said to have been assaulted by 13 persons, whereas two injuries were caused to him, one of which is simple in nature. As far as weapon used for causing assault which has resulted in grievous injury is concerned, admittedly the said iron stand has been seized. As such, custodial interrogation of the Applicants is not necessary. These applicants have clean past record and not likely to flee from justice. In the result, applications stand allowed. Hence, the order:

O R D E R

- (i) Anticipatory Bail Application No. 1861 of 2024 is allowed by confirming interim order dated 24.10.2024.
