PC. :-

1. Individuals are locked in acts of encroachment. The Petitioner contends that Respondent Nos.6 to 8 are threatening him that they would destroy his house and demolish it. Counter allegations are made by both the sides as regards encroachments. This dispute is of a civil nature and the Petitioner would be better placed if he approaches the Civil Court.
2. The learned advocate for the Petitioner submits that he would withdraw this petition and approach the Civil Court for the redressal of his grievance.
3. In view of the above, this Writ Petition is disposed off as withdrawn. Disposal of this Petition would not be an impediment for the Petitioner to seek redressal of his grievance before the Civil Court.
