.....
CORAM : R.G. AVACHAT &
NEERAJ P. DHOTE, JJ.

DATE : 15.01.2024

PER COURT :

1. This is an Application for condonation of delay along with Criminal Appeal against the conviction.
2. Learned Advocate for the Applicant / Appellant submits that he was appointed through legal aid and accordingly, he has preferred a Criminal Appeal along with this Application for condonation of delay, however, the convict has engaged a private Advocate on his own and he has filed the separate Appeal. He submits that this Application and Appeal may be disposed of in view of supervening events.
3. The learned APP for the Respondent/State is present.
4. In view of above and since the convict has preferred Criminal Appeal against his conviction through the Advocate of his choice, this Application and Appeal stand disposed of.
