CORAM : S. G. MEHARE, J.
DATE : 24.01.2024

PER COURT :-

1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned AGP for the respondents-State.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the notices were not issued to the petitioners and the interim stay order has been passed in their absence. The remedy in such a case is to appear before the Authority which has passed the order of interim stay and make the submissions. However, it is experienced here, that against every orders of similar types, the petitioners directly come to the High Court and file the Writ Petitions.
3. There is a flood of such types of writ petitions before this Court that wastes the Court's valuable time. The remedy was available to the petitioners to approach before the Authority which has passed the impugned order. This is nothing but an abuse of the process of law.

4. Hence, writ petition stands dismissed with costs of Rs.5,000/-.

5. Costs of Rs.5,000/- be deposited with the District Court Bar Association Library, Aurangabad within a week and the receipt be submitted to the Registrar (Judicial) of this Court.
