ORDER

1. These matters have been listed in today's Lok Adalat for settlement since the Award of the learned Reference Court is less than four times of the Award of the Land Acquisition Officer.

However, the learned counsel for the appellant/acquiring body submits that the acquiring body/Union of India has not issued any Government resolution as such not to prefer the appeal against the award less than four times.

2. In view of the above statement, the matters could not be settled.
