

3. The applicant who is married has established physical relations with the victim who is a minor by threatening her.

4. Having gone through the medical report which supports the case of the prosecution of the penetrative sexual assault by the applicant. Since the offence is serious and considering the age of the victim, who was 15 years old at the relevant time, and the allegations against the applicant along with medical evidence, I am of the opinion that this is not a fit case for grant of bail. Accordingly, it is rejected.
