DATE : 19th JUNE, 2024.

P.C.:

1. Heard.
2. By this application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure the applicants are seeking bail in Crime No.192 of 2023, registered with Akulj Police Station, District: Solapur for the offences punishable under Sections 307, 323, 324, 506, 504 r/w 34 of Indian Penal Code (for short 'IPC'), Sections 4,

25 and 27 of Arms Act, 1959.

3. Learned Counsel for the Applicants submit that the Applicants are in jail from last about one year and since the charge-sheet has been filed, further custody of the Applicants are not required. It is submitted that though Section 307 of IPC has been applied, there is no evidence attracting offence under Section 307 of IPC. He therefore, prays for grant of bail.

4. Learned APP and learned Counsel for the Intervenor strongly opposed the application and submits that during the investigation, sufficient material is collected by the Investigating Officer to show the involvement of the Applicants in the alleged offence. Accordingly, he prays for rejection of the present bail application.

5. After going through the injury report filed alongwith the charge-sheet, it appears that there was superficial abrasion, deep abrasion and also contusion. All the injuries are simple in nature.

6. In the above referred backdrop, considering the fact that the charge-sheet has already been filed and further custody of the Applicants is not required, I am of the opinion that this is fit case of grant of bail. Accordingly, the application is allowed.
