

2. Respondent No.2-Union had filed an application under Section 14 of the Maharashtra Recognition of Trade Unions and Prevention of Unfair Labour Practices Act, 1971 for cancellation of recognition of the Petitioner-Union. Respondent No.2-Union had filed an application before the Industrial Court for appointment of Investigating Officer for verification of the membership of different unions. This application was allowed and while the process had started, a separate application was filed by Respondent No.1 for recognition of different period in respect of the same establishment. This application has been disposed of by the impugned order.

3. Though a notice was issued on 20 June 2017, the Court specifically stated that it had not restrained the concerned Court from proceeding further in the matter. We are informed that thereafter the proceedings were disposed of by the Industrial Court and further proceedings are pending.

4. In these circumstances, both the interim orders and final proceedings have been concluded, we do not intend to keep the petition pending. We keep all the arguments of the parties open to be agitated in the main proceedings if they are still pending.

5. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.

6. In case, the cause raised in this petition survives, it is open to the Petitioner to file an application for restoration, demonstrating how it survives, provided the same is filed within a period of eight weeks.
