The above numbered First Appeal is listed on the board of Registrar for third time for supplying private paper books. Already four weeks time was granted. However, despite of granting four weeks time the Advocate for the Appellant has not supplied private paper book.

Here reference to Chapter VII of the Bombay High Court, Appellate Side Rules, 1960 [for short "Rules"] may be conveniently made. It states about Processes, Process fees, Printing charges, Security for costs and other procedure after admission etc.

In view of provisions under Chapter VII, Rule 10 (vi) matter to be dismissed for non-prosecution, where copies of paper-book etc. are not filed within time. — Immediately after the expiry of the periods prescribed in the foregoing sub-rules (iii) and (iv) the supply of paper-books the office shall place before the Registrar all such matters in which paper-books and the title sheets have not been supplied within the prescribed time and the Registrar shall dismiss all such matters for failure to prosecute:

As such, the prescribed time to supply of paper books provided under Rules 1960 has been expired. 06 weeks time was granted, but all in vain. The matter is lying ideally without any progress as learned Advocate for the applicant has not filed private paper book. In these circumstances, instead of passing order of dismissal outrightly, it would be just and proper to give one opportunity to supply the private paper book.

In turn, two weeks time is granted with directions to supply private paper book without fail. On failure, aforesaid First Appeal would stand dismissed without further reference to the Court of Registrar.
