DATE : APRIL 3, 2024.

P.C. :

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants and learned APPs for the State.
2. These are the applications for bail in respect of the offence punishable under Sections 120-B, 342, 364(a), 395, 504, 506 of the Indian Penal Code (hereafter 'IPC' for short) registered on 14/11/2022 vide C.R. No. 624/2022 with Malegaon Taluka Police Station.

3. The applicants are the accused nos.1 and 2. The prosecution case in brief is that the complainant is a scrap dealer residing at Ahmadabad. The accused persons called up the complainant and told him that they can offer him scrap at a reasonable rate. Accordingly, the complainant went to Dhule to meet the accused persons. The complainant was taken on a motorcycle on the pretext that the scrap is lying at the distance of 30 kilometers from the city. The complainant found something suspicious and sent his location on what's-app to one of his friends. Thereafter, the complainant realized that he has been kidnapped. The accused persons called up the complainant's father and demanded ransom of Rs.10 lakhs. The complainant's father agreed to pay ransom of Rs.3 lakhs which he arranged from friends and relatives. A sum of Rs.2,25,000/- was transferred to the accused persons. The complainant was allowed to go thereafter. The police officials succeeded in nabbing two accused persons out of six, that is the present applicants. Four of the accused are absconding.

4. Learned APPs appearing in respective applications vehemently opposed the applications. They submitted that the offence is serious. They further submitted that there was a threat to the life of the complainant. It is also submitted that four of the accused are still absconding and therefore, there is every likelihood of the applicants absconding.

5. The applicants were arrested on 15/11/2022 and now are in custody for more than one year and four months with no possibility of the trial concluding any time soon. Merely because the co-accused are absconding, is not a ground to deny the bail to the applicants particularly at this distance of time. The applicants will face the consequences post-trial if found guilty. The investigation is complete. The charge-sheet has been filed. There are no criminal antecedents reported against the applicants. I propose to enlarge the applicants on bail but upon imposing stringent conditions. Hence, the following order :-

ORDER

- (a) The applications are allowed.
- (b) The applicants - (1) Dadaram Aktar Bhosale and (2) Bablu alias Batta Chotu Chavhan in connection with C.R. No.

(d) The applicants shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing the facts to Court or any Police Officer. The applicants shall not tamper with evidence.

(e) On being released on bail, the applicants shall furnish their contact numbers and residential addresses to the Investigating Officer and shall keep him updated, in case there is any change.

6. The applications are disposed of.
