for quashing the charge-sheet.

4. The Respondent No.2 is present in the Court. She has expressed her consent for quashing the impugned proceedings. She had filed affidavit. She is represented by Advocate.

5. In the Affidavit it is stated that the Petitioner is the nephew of Respondent No.2-husband. Therefore, being member of family, the parties on their own will and accord agreed to bury the hatchet to amicably resolve the dispute and lead life peacefully without interference of each other. They have reached an understanding where both have agreed to settle the matter and quash the proceedings by mutual consent. The complainant has no grievance and/or complaints against the Petitioner.

6. The Petitioner is also present in the Court. It is submitted that the Petitioner would not cause any harassment or trouble of any nature to Respondent No.2 in future course of time.

7. Considering the aforesaid circumstances, the impugned proceedings can be quashed.
