2. The applicant No. 1 is brother-in-law, applicant No. 2 is mother-in-law and applicant No. 3 is sister-in-law of respondent No. 2. The husband of respondent No. 2 had passed away on 14.12.2023.

3. The complainant is present in the Court. She has no objection for quashing the proceedings. She has filed the affidavit stating that parties have decided to resolve the dispute between them and they would file consent terms in Domestic Violence Application No. 109 of 2022 pending before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 12th Court, Bandra, Mumbai.

4. Learned Advocate for the applicants and respondent No. 2 submitted that in view of the settlement between the parties, proceedings may be quashed. It was agreed that the applicants shall make the payment of Rs. 1,50,000/- to the complainant. The demand draft of Rs. 1,50,000/- is handed over to the complainant.

5. Considering the fact that the proceedings had arisen out of the matrimonial discord between the parties and since it is decided to resolve the dispute and in view of no objection of the complainant, the impugned proceedings can be quashed and set aside.
