

Court directed the husband to pay all educational expenses of daughter and also pay ad-hoc maintenance of sum of Rs.30,000/- per month from the date of filing of the application till the same is decided.

3. This Court by its order dated 3 March, 2023 directed, the petitioner/husband to clear 50% of the arrears within four weeks.

4. Mr.Joshi, learned counsel for the respondent submits that after passing of the order of this Court, the petitioner has not paid any amount towards the interim maintenance. She submits that in such a case, the writ petition requires to be dismissed.

5. Mr.Jagtap, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that his client has paid all the educational expenses of the daughter. He submits that he has no instructions whether the entire outstanding is paid as of today.

6. As a matter of last chance, one week time is granted to the petitioner to clear entire outstanding. If such amount is not paid within a period of one week, writ petition to stand dismissed without further reference to Court.

7. Interim relief granted earlier, to continue for a period of one week.

8. Stand over to 4 April, 2024.

2. Today Ms. Joshi appearing for Respondent (Wife) submits that as of today the outstanding amount towards maintenance is Rs.31,00,000/-. Ms. Purav appearing for Petitioner (Husband) submits that the outstanding amount according to her instructions is only Rs.18,50,000/-. She submits that the Husband is not in a position to pay the outstanding amount due to financial constrains.

3. Since the Petitioner has not complied the directions given by this Court on 28 March 2024, Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
