3. I have heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned APP for the respondent-State.
4. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has good case on merits. There is no substantive evidence to connect the applicant with the alleged crime. It is submitted that the applicant has deposited the fine amount.
5. On the other hand, learned APP for the Respondent-State submits that considering the nature of offence for which the applicant has been convicted, the sentence may not be suspended.
6. This Court has admitted the appeal filed by the applicant. The applicant was on bail during trial and he did not misuse the liberty granted to him. Considering the overall facts and circumstances, I am inclined to suspend the sentence and release the applicant on bail.
