..... Petitioner

VERSUS

Shri. Shripatrao Shankar Bhat
And Anr

..... Respondents

Mr.Subhash Y.Dhadge for the Petitioner.

Mr.Jayant J.Bardeskar for the Respondents.

CORAM: RAJESH S. PATIL, J.

DATE : 5 FEBRUARY, 2024

P.C. :-

Mr.Dhadge, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner from his client, the petitioner who is present in Court states that the present writ petition was filed challenging the interim maintenance order.

2. He further submits that during the pendency of the writ petition, the main proceedings before the Family Court, Pune has been disposed of and so also the interim order passed which is under challenge before this Court was set aside and the Petition No.E-17 of 2017 has been dismissed by the judgment and order dated 18 December, 2019. Therefore, according to him the present writ petition has become infructuous.

3. Writ petition is disposed of as infructuous.
