DATED : 03rd MARCH, 2024

P.C. :-

1. The Appellant is present in-person. He expressed desire to withdraw this appeal. His advocate is not present. When asked, he submitted that this appeal is preferred against the judgment of the family Court for dismissing his petition for custody of then minor child. He is having interim custody of the minor son, who has now attained majority.

2. The Respondent-wife is residing in Australia. He submits that in spite of the service, she has not appeared in this appeal. He further submits that now the son has become major. There is an order passed on 13/04/2016 recording that “the custody of the minor son is with the Appellant-Applicant”. It also mentions that in spite of the service of the notice, Respondents have chosen not to appear.

3. The identity of the Appellant needs to be certified. Hence, we have requested to learned Advocate Shri Vivek Rane, who is on the panel of the legal aid, to verify his identity on the basis of the documents brought by him. He has also verified his identity on the basis of the driving license and scanned copy of the Aadhar card.

4. In view of the above, the appeal is disposed of as withdrawn.

5. Interim applications, if any, are disposed of.
