2. Today it is informed to the Court that parties have interacted with each other after the last hearing and have exchanged terms and conditions but there are certain issues which are yet to be resolved. Both the learned Advocates have informed me the progress of the meeting held between the parties today. In view of them informing the Court about the attempt for reconciliation, this Court is of the opinion that further time for two weeks be granted to them as and by way of a final opportunity to consider reconciliation.
