CORAM : SHIVKUMAR DIGE, J.

DATE : 6th DECEMBER, 2024.

ORAL JUDGMENT :

1. The issue involved in this appeal is deduction of the amount for personal expenses.

2. It is contention of learned counsel for the Appellant that at the time of accident deceased was bachelor. The Tribunal has deducted $\frac{1}{3}$ amount for personal expenses, it should be $\frac{1}{2}$ amount. Hence, requested to allow the Appeal.

3. It is contention of learned counsel for Respondent Nos.1 to 3 that he has no objection for deduction $\frac{1}{2}$ amount for personal expenses.

4. I have heard both learned counsel. Perused judgment and order passed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Kolhapur (for short "the Tribunal").

5. While calculating the compensation, the Tribunal deducted $\frac{1}{3}$ amount for personal expenses. However, at the time of the accident, the deceased was a bachelor, therefore, the Tribunal should have considered $\frac{1}{2}$ amount for personal expenses instead of $\frac{1}{3}$. The Tribunal has awarded total compensation of Rs.23,96,400/-. If $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount is deducted for personal expenses instead of $\frac{1}{3}$, the total compensation comes to Rs. 18,34,400/-. The excess amount comes to Rs.5,62,000/-.

6. In view of the above calculations, the Appellant/Insurance Company entitled for excess amount.

7. In view of above, I pass following order:

ORDER

- i. Appeal is allowed.
 - ii. The Appellant is permitted to withdraw the excess amount of Rs.5,62,000/- from deposited amount along with accrued interest thereon.
 - iii. The Claimants are permitted to withdraw rest of the amount along with accrued interest thereon.
 - iv. The statutory amount be transmitted to the Tribunal.
The parties are at liberty to withdraw it, as per Rule.
 - v. Record and Proceedings be sent back to the Tribunal.
8. All pending applications, if any, stands disposed of.
