CORAM : MILIND N. JADHAV, J.

DATE : FEBRUARY 28, 2024

P. C.:

1. Heard Mr. Chopra, learned Advocate for Respondents and the partners of Petitioner No. 1 before me. Mr. Chopra would inform that apart from these two Petitions, there is another Writ Petition i.e. Writ Petition No. 2612 of 2024 wherein an identical order has been passed against the Petitioners. All these three Petitions are directed to be tagged and listed together henceforth.

2. Summons for judgment has been partly allowed by directing the Petitioners to deposit 50% of the principal amount. Without delineating into the merits of the defence adopted by the Petitioners as also the case of the Respondents, I have requested both the parties to consider their respective cases and attempt a reconciliation, if possible. This would apply mere to the Petitioners to consider giving a reasonable offer of making payments over a period of time, if agreeable to the Respondents. Undoubtedly, this shall be without prejudice to the rights and contentions of both the parties. I clarify that I have not expressed anything on merits and I request the parties to make at least one attempt before the next date and apprise me if a resolution is possible or otherwise.

3. At the joint request of both the parties, stand over to 6th March, 2024.
