...Petitioner

Versus

The State Of Maharashtra And Ors

...Respondents

Mr. Utkarsh Desai for the Petitioner.

Mr. V. M. Mali, AGP for the Respondent-State

Mr. Prashant Bhavake i/b. Mr. Tukaram Shendge for the Respondent

Nos. 5 & 6

CORAM : NITIN JAMDAR &
M. M. SATHAYE, JJ.

DATED : 23 JULY 2024

P.C.:

1. The impugned order passed by the Education Officer states that the Petitioner, as a head of the school has not processed the pension papers of some of the employees and that is the reason why the pension papers of the Petitioner have not been processed. Apart from the question whether these two factors can be linked, the question would still arise whether the Petitioner has deliberately not processed the pension papers of other employees.

2. Learned Counsel for the Petitioner submits that the relevant papers are not with the Petitioner and they have been returned to the Respondent-Management and therefore, the pension papers of other employees could not be processed.

3. Let the reply be filed by the Respondent Nos. 5 & 6 dealing with this contention.

4. Stand over to 13 August 2024.
