...Respondent

Ms. Rutuja N. Pawar for petitioner.

Mr. Karan Adik a/w Ms. Sangeeta Yadav for respondent.

CORAM : K.R. SHRIRAM &
JITENDRA JAIN, JJ.
DATE : 21st AUGUST 2024

P.C. :

1 At the outset, by consent, in the order dated 9th August 2024, in paragraph 4, the dated “11th June 2024” be corrected to read as “20th March 2024.”

2 Original order to be corrected. Rest of the order remains unaltered.

3 There is an affidavit of one Ravindra J. Dange affirmed on 17th August 2024 being filed on behalf of respondents following the directions given by this Court on 9th August 2024.

4 Mr. Adik states that the documents have been found and they have informed the petitioner's advocate to come and to collect copies of the documents. We find this approach objectionable because petitioner have been, time and again, asking the documents and respondents should only make it available and then call upon petitioner to come to their office and to collect it.

5 Ms. Pawar states that petitioner would like to take inspection of the documents also and petitioner will collect the documents from the office of respondent's advocate Ms. Yadav. Inspection and copies shall be given in the office of Ms. Yadav on 27th August 2024 at 5:00 p.m.

6 Stand over to 2nd September 2024.
