Mr Vaibhav Ugle, for the Appellant.

Mr Yuvraj Narvankar (appeared online) for Respondent No. 3.

CORAM,

ARIF S. DOCTOR, J

DATED,

29th November 2024

PC:-

1. The matter was circulated at the instance of Respondent No. 3. I have heard Learned Counsel for Respondent No. 3, who points out that the interim order is prejudicing the Respondents in as much as the Appellant has also filed a Civil Suit seeking reliefs against the trust qua the said property, in which there was no interim relief granted in favour of the Appellant. Furthermore, he submitted that the Suit has been suppressed by the Appellant to these proceedings. He submitted that the First Appeal has originally filed. There has been a suppression. The same is come to their knowledge only by way of a Civil Application.

2. He thus submitted that the First Appeal be listed for admission to enable the Respondents to argue why the interim relief should not be vacated.
3. List the matter on 13th December 2024 for admission.
4. Interim relief to continue until the next date.
