

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

MISCELLANEOUS CIVIL APPLICATION NO.93 OF 2024

Neha Amol Aamte Applicant

V/s.

Amol Uttam Aamte Respondent

NILAM
SANTOSH
KAMBLE

Digitally signed
by NILAM
SANTOSH
KAMBLE
Date: 2024.06.26
12:00:06 +0530

Ms.Priya Gajare i/b Mr.Amit Karva, for the Applicant.

CORAM : ARUN R. PEDNEKER, J.

DATE : 25th JUNE 2024

P.C:-

. Two weeks time granted to supply copy, issue notice thereafter, returnable on 6th August 2024.

2. The affidavit of service is filed by the Applicant stating that notice of Speed Post is served on 28th March 2024.

Though none has entered appearance.

3. The learned counsel for the Applicant further submits that Applicant-Wife is now residing with her parents and she is unemployed and dependent on her parents. She submits that distance between Kalyan to Wai is more than 255 k.m. It would be difficult for her to attend the proceedings in Satara.

4. Until the next date there shall be ad-interim relief in terms of prayer Clause (b).

5. In any event, the Applicant fails to supply the copies for issuance of notice within two weeks the interim relief granted today will stand automatically vacated.

(ARUN R. PEDNEKER, J.)