

4. As far as recovery is concerned, four bogus admit cards were recovered from the applicant but at the same time there are no allegations in any of the statement of the student or complainant that they met the applicant at any time or he induced them or promised them for any employment in the Army. All such allegations are against the accused no. 1.

5. The learned APP while strongly opposing the application submits that it is a big racket and the matter is very serious. He further points out that huge amount was received by the applicant in his bank account. However, considering the material available in the charge-sheet, nothing is pointed out that the said amount was received by the applicant from any victim or main accused.

6. Thus, presently except the fact that four bogus / false admit cards were recovered from the applicant, there is no other incriminating material pointed out to prima facie show the applicant is involved in the present alleged offence. Moreover, there are no antecedents against the applicant.

7. The applicant is in jail from about 10 months and since his further custody is not required, I am of the opinion that this is a fit case for grant of bail.
