

report of the victim, prima facie, it does not support the case of the prosecution about penetrative sexual assault and in the circumstances, as it creates doubt about the prosecution case, I am of the opinion that since the charge-sheet has been filed after completion of the investigation, further custody of the applicant is not necessary.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent no. 2 and the learned APP opposed the application and submit that if the applicant is released on bail who is resident of same village where the victim resides, there is every likelihood that he may pressurize the victim as well as other witnesses. The said apprehensions can be addressed by imposing certain stringent conditions.

5. At this stage, the learned counsel for the applicant, on instructions, makes a statement that the applicant is ready to abide by any condition, including the condition not to enter into territorial jurisdiction of Pune, till the conclusion of the trial.

6. Accordingly, I pass the following order:

ORDER
