(Emphasis added)

6. Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel for the Applicant submitted that the role alleged against the present Applicant is that the present Applicant has acted as mediator. He submitted that as per the prosecution case, there are direct links amongst co-Accused persons for the purpose of selling contraband material. The contraband items seized is 54.5 grams of Mephedrone (MD) along with 1 kg and 288 gms. of Ganja. Certainly, the contraband item Mephedrone (MD) of 54.5 grams is of commercial quantity.

7. It is the submission of Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant that the Applicant was arrested on 4th March 2024. The Charge-sheet was filed on 30th March 2024. He submitted that as far as the present Applicant is concerned, the only material against him is that he called Accused No.4 and Accused Nos.2 and 3 from his cell phone on number of occasions. He submitted that except these call details there is no material whatsoever against the present Applicant. He relied on a decision of this Court in Saddam Hussain Qureshi vs. Union of India.¹ and more particularly on Paragraph Nos.11 and 12 of the same. He also relied on the decision of Gujarat High Court in *Yash Jayeshbhai Champaklal Shah vs. State of Gujarat*² and emphasized Paragraph No.5 of the same. He also relied on the decision of the Supreme

2 2022 SCC OnLine Guj 271

Court in *Bharat Chaudhary vs. Union of India*³ and more particularly on Paragraph Nos.13 and 14 thereof. He submitted that there are no other antecedents.

8. On the other hand, Ms. Newton, learned APP for the Respondent-State strongly opposed the Bail Application. She pointed out various contentions raised in Affidavit-in-Reply dated 30th July 2024 of Hemant K. Nagare, Assistant Police Inspector, NDPS Cell, Crime Branch, Nashik City. She more particularly relied on Paragraph No.14 of the said Affidavit-in-Reply. She submitted that the material on record clearly shows that the present Applicant was in constant contact with Accused Nos.2, 3 and 4. She therefore, submitted that the involvement of the Applicant in the alleged offence is made out. After taking instructions, she submitted that the Applicant has no criminal antecedents.

9. Before considering the rival contentions, as the offence is under Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 ("NDPS Act"), it is necessary to set out Section 37 of the NDPS Act, wherein conditions to be mandatorily complied before releasing an

3 (2021) 20 SCC 50

Accused on bail, are set out. Section 37 of the NDPS Act reads as under:

“37. Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974),—

(a) every offence punishable under this Act shall be cognizable;

(b) no person accused of an offence punishable for offences under section 19 or section 24 or section 27-A and also for offences involving commercial quantity shall be released on bail or on his own bond unless—

(i) the Public Prosecutor has been given an opportunity to oppose the application for such release, and

(ii) where the Public Prosecutor opposes the application, the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

(2) The limitations on granting of bail specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1) are in addition to the limitations under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) or any other law for the time being in force on granting of bail.”

(Emphasis added)

Thus, as per Section 37 of the NDPS Act, following requirements are mandatorily to be complied with before releasing an Accused on bail:

(i) The Public Prosecutor is to be given an opportunity to oppose the application seeking bail;

(ii) Where the Public Prosecutor opposes the application:-

(a) The court is required to record satisfaction that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the Applicant is not guilty of such offence;

(b) The Court is required to record satisfaction that the Applicant is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

10. In the present case, Ms. Newton, learned APP has filed Affidavit-in-Reply of Hemant K. Nagare, Assistant Police Inspector, NDPS Cell, Crime Branch, Nashik City, and has opposed the Bail Application by raising several contentions. Therefore, the first requirement is complied with.

11. Thus, what is required to be considered is that whether this Court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the Applicant is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

12. In the present case, the only material against the present Applicant is that he was in constant telephonic contact with co-Accused namely Accused Nos.2, 3 and 4. The relevant Paragraph No.14 is already set out herein above.

13. As the only material on record against the Applicant is that the Applicant was in constant contact with Accused Nos.2, 3, and 4. Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant has relied on Paragraph No.5 of the decision in Yash Shah (supra), which reads as under:

“5. Having heard learned advocates for the appearing parties, it emerges on record that the applicant is not found in possession of any contraband article. Over and above that, the call data records may reveal that in an around the time of incident, he was in contact with the co-accused who were found in possession of contraband. Since there is no recording of conversation in between the accused, mere contacts with the co accused who were found in possession cannot be treated to be a corroborative material in absence of substantive material found against the accused. However, screenshot of one of the whatsapp chat in between the co-accused shown to the Court, there is hardly anything which connects the applicant with the present offence or even asserting that he ordered for the same which were to be delivered by the accused found in possession of contraband. In absence of any other material, which is still to be retrieved from the devices of the mobile phone and information thereon which is still awaited, as considered by the Supreme Court in the case of Bharat Chaudhary (Supra) said material cannot be considered to be a sufficient material to establish any live link with the co-accused who were found in the possession of contraband.”

(Emphasis added)

Thus, in the case before Gujarat High Court the call data records revealed that the Accused was in contact with the co-accused who were found in possession of contraband in and around the time of the incident. In the said decision of Gujarat High Court, it has been held that, since there is no recording of conversation between the Accused, mere telephonic contact with the co-Accused, who were found in possession of contrabands cannot be treated as corroborative material in absence of substantive material found against the Accused. The material on record shows that the present Applicant had frequently contacted Accused Nos.2, 3 and 4 on cell phone and except that material there is no other material against the present Applicant.

14. Mr. Bankapur, learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant has also relied on Paragraph Nos.13 and 14 in Bharat Chaudhary (supra). The said Paragraph Nos.13 and 14 read as under:

“13. In the absence of any clarity so far on the quantitative analysis of the samples, the prosecution cannot be heard to state at this preliminary stage that the petitioners have been found to be in possession of commercial quantity of psychotropic substances as contemplated under the NDPS Act. Further, a large number of the tablets that have been seized by DRI admittedly contain herbs/medicines meant to enhance male potency and they do not attract the provisions of the NDPS Act. Most importantly, none of the tablets were seized by the prosecution during the course of the search conducted, either at the office or at the residence of A-4 at Jaipur, on 16-3-2020. Reliance on printouts of WhatsApp messages downloaded from the mobile phone and devices seized from the office premises of A-4 cannot be treated at this stage as sufficient material to establish a live link between him and A-1 to A-3, when even as per the prosecution, scientific reports in respect of the said devices is still awaited.

14. In the absence of any psychotropic substance found in the conscious possession of A-4, we are of the opinion that mere reliance on the statement made by A-1 to A-3 under Section 67 of the NDPS Act is too tenuous a ground to sustain the impugned order dated 15-7-2021 [Union of India v. Bharat Chaudhary, 2021 SCC OnLine Mad 6554] . This is all the more so when such a reliance runs contrary to the ruling in Tofan Singh [Tofan Singh v. State of T.N., (2021) 4 SCC 1 : (2021) 2 SCC (Cri) 246] . The impugned order [Union of India v. Bharat Chaudhary, 2021 SCC OnLine Mad 6554] qua A-4 is, accordingly, quashed and set aside and the order dated 2-11-2020 passed by the learned Special Judge, EC & NDPS cases, is restored. As for Raja Chandrasekharan (A-1), since the charge-sheet has already been filed and by now the said accused has remained in custody for over a period of two years, it is deemed appropriate to release him on bail, subject to the satisfaction of the trial court.”

(Emphasis added)

The Supreme Court has also observed that only sending some WhatsApp message which have been later downloaded from the cellular phone and devices seized from the Accused cannot be treated as sufficient material to establish a live link between the Accused persons.

15. In this particular case, admittedly the contraband was found in possession of Accused Nos.1 and 2. As per the prosecution case, the said contraband material was purchased by the Accused Nos.1 and 2 from Accused No.3- Imtiaz Umar Shaikh and Accused No.3 had purchased the same from Accused No.4 and the Accused No.4 has purchased the same from Accused No.6 i.e. present Applicant. Except the material in the form of Call Details Record (C.D.R.) showing that the present Applicant i.e. Accused No.6 had called on number of occasions Accused Nos.2, 3 and 4, there is no other material whatsoever against the present Applicant. Thus, there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Applicant was not involved in the said offence.

16. It is an admitted position that there are no other antecedents against the Applicant. Therefore, there is no material on record to hold that the Applicant is likely to commit any offence while on bail.

17. Accordingly, the Applicant can be enlarged on bail by imposing stringent conditions.

18. In view thereof, the following Order:-

ORDER

- (a) The Applicant - Saddam Hussain Aslam Sarang be released on bail in connection with C.R. No.268 of 2023 registered with the Indiranagar Police Station, District - Nashik on his furnishing P.R. Bond of Rs.1,00,000/- with one or two local solvent sureties in the like amount.
