

that there is likelihood that the prosecution may apply for cancellation of bail.

4. Be that as it may, the fact remains that the similarly circumstanced co-accused have been released on bail by the trial Court.

5. In the circumstances, the principle of parity will apply to the present case. Accordingly, I pass the following order:

ORDER

- i) Criminal application is allowed;
- ii) It is directed that the applicant be released on bail in connection with Crime No.107 of 2023, registered with Swargate Police Station, Dist: Pune for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 468, 471, 197, 198, 482, 484 r/w Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 65, 66(A),(C),(E) of the Information and Technology Act, on furnishing P.R. Bond of Rupees Twenty-Five Thousand with one solvent surety in the like amount;
- iii) Applicant shall make himself available for interrogation by the Investigating Officer as and when required under written intimation;
- iv) Applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the fact of the accusation, so as to dissuade them from disclosing such fact to the Court or to any police officer;

v) Applicant is directed not to commit similar offence;

vi) Applicant shall furnish his copy of Aadhar Card working mobile phone number and permanent address proof;

vii) Applicant shall attend the trial court on each and every date and failure to obey any condition will entail the prosecution for cancellation of bail.

The application is disposed of.
