

alleged offence. It is further evident that after the incident the deceased was taken to the hospital and he was discharged immediately. However due to complications, which arose after the discharge, he was again taken to the hospital. It is to be noted that there were no visible injuries found on his body. Subsequently, as septicemia was developed, he died of the same.

4. Thus, the incident was not premeditated and it took place in a fit of anger. Furthermore, considering the role attributed to the present applicant and the nature of incident, I am of the opinion that the applicant is entitled for grant of bail.

5. The learned APP, however, strongly opposed the application on the ground that the offence is serious. She further points out that the applicant and the witnesses are residents of the same village and if the applicant is released on bail, he may pressurize the prosecution witnesses and in that case there would be no fair trial.

6. Considering, the above referred-observations, made as regards the merit of the matter, I am inclined to grant bail. However, as far as apprehension expressed by the learned APP, the learned counsel for the applicant, on instructions, makes a statement that the applicant is ready to abide by any condition including not to enter into territorial jurisdiction of Tal-Ambegaon, District-Pune, till the conclusion of trial, except for attending the trial.

7. Accordingly, I pass the following order:

ORDER

- i) Criminal application is allowed;
