

Soumyabrata Roy and another	...	Applicants vs.
The State of Maharashtra and another	...	Respondents

Ms. Revati Desai, i/b. Rebecca Gonsalves for respondent No.2.

CORAM : MANISH PITALE, J.
DATE : 11th NOVEMBER, 2024

P.C. :

In this application, on 23.10.2024, while the application as regards applicant No.1 was dismissed, it was kept pending as regards applicant No.2. This Court took note of the fact that applicant No.2 had paid certain amount to the informant. But, there was still balance amount to be paid. Since the applicant No.2 had shown willingness to make further payments and the informant was also ready to accept the same, the application was adjourned and the interim relief in favour of the applicant No.2 was continued.

2. Today, this Court is informed that after the order dated 23.10.2024 was passed, the applicant No.2 paid further amounts of ₹ 7,000 and ₹ 25,000. The learned counsel for the applicant has tendered an email sent by the informant, who has agreed for an arrangement, whereby the balance amount of ₹ 1,00,000, shall be paid by applicant No.2 in four installments of ₹ 25,000 each on 11.11.2024 (today), 29.11.2024, 14.12.2024 and 28.12.2024. The copy of email is taken on record and marked as 'X'.

3. In view of the above, list the present application for further consideration on 02.12.2024 at the top of the list, in order to examine the bona fides of applicant No.2, as regards payment of the aforesaid installments.

4. The interim order shall continue to operate in favour of the applicant No.2 till the next date of listing.
