DATE : 7th OCTOBER 2024

P.C. :

. These applications have been filed for grant of anticipatory bail. The applications are suffering from certain objections, which have not been removed as yet. Some of the applications have been pending for a long time, while others have been filed recently.

2. Considering the fact that anticipatory bail applications by their very nature are extremely urgent, the applicants are expected to remove the objections, at the earliest, for listing of the applications.

3. In view of the above, the applicants in these applications are granted two weeks time, as a matter of last chance, to remove the objections. If the objections are not removed within the stipulated period of time of two weeks from today, the applications shall be dismissed without further reference to the Court.

4. In the event, the objections are removed within the stipulated period of time, the applications so numbered, shall be included in the supplementary list for urgent hearing.

MANISH PITALE, J.
