Sr. No. 10- TP/2366/2024

Mr. Rushabh Thacker, Advocate for the petitioner.

For Compliance

Office has referred the above petition to the Hon'ble Taxing Master for seeking necessary direction with respect to the payment of court fees. The Hon'ble Taxing Master by order dated 31.07.2024 made following observations :
"On reading the said submission it is gathered that in the petitioner for Probate and movable properties mentioned as Serial Nol 1 to 3 of the schedule I are the same as in the petition for succession certificate at serial no. 2 ,3 and 7 in schedule I therein. There are other properties mentioned in these schedule which are different in nature and it is required to valued. On persuing the petition it is seen that petitioner has already withdraw the TP No. 3211 of 2023 being Probate Petition and refund is granted as per rules by an order dated 22.3.2024. Therefore petitioner is not entitled for exemption of court fee for TP No. 2366 of 2024. Both the petitions states different other properties, therefore required to be considered separately". Hence, Advocate for the petitioner is directed to pay necessary court fees in the present petition as per the office requisitions.

Advocate for the petitioner submits that he has already paid necessary court fees of Rs. 75,000/-. Office to verify the same.

List the matter on 14.10.2024.
