Review Petition No.12 of 2024, Review Petition No.10 of 2024, Review Petition No.8 of 2024, Review Petition (L) No.4754 of 2024, Review Petition(L)No.6609 of 2024, Review Petition No.11 of 2024, Review Petition

(L)No.4781 of 2024, Review Petition (L) No.4765 of 2024, Review Petition (L) No. 12487 of 2024 and Review Petition (L) No. 6067 of 2024, not on Board. With the consent of parties taken on Board.

2 In our order dated 29th July, 2024 passed in Review Petition No.9 of 2024 and Review Petition (L) No.4758 of 2024,we had noted that the Review Petitioners seek to review the order passed by this Bench on 11th January, 2024. By the said decision, this Court took the view that Banks/Non-Banking Financing Companies are not obliged to adopt the restructuring process as contemplated in the Notification 29th May, 2015 issued by the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises on its own, without there first being any application by the Petitioners/MSMEs in that regard.

3 After the aforesaid two Review Petitions were filed, Mr. Nedumpara also brought to our attention that several other Review Petitions have been filed. We had, therefore, directed that all the Review Petitions be served on the respective Respondents and had placed the matters on Board today for further directions.

4 Today when the matters are called out, we are informed that the order under review, namely, our order dated 11th January 2024, has been set aside by the Hon'ble Supreme Court by its judgment and order dated 1st August, 2024. A copy of the said order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been tendered to us by Mr. Nedumpara. We have perused the said order which clearly records that the impugned order (i.e. the order dated 11th January, 2024) is set aside. The matters have not been remanded back to the High Court for consideration of any issue afresh and has further stated that all other issues which are not dealt with by the High Court based on the factual aspects of the Writ Petitions, the parties are at liberty to take recourse to any remedy, as may be legally available to them. Once this is the judgment and order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Mr. Nedumpara correctly submitted that nothing would survive in any of these Review Petitions as the same are rendered infructuous.

5 We agree with the submissions of Mr. Nedumpara. Since the order under review itself is set aside, nothing is left for us to review. In these Circumstances, the Review Petitions are dismissed as infructuous. In view of the disposal of the above Review Petitions, nothing survives in any of the Interim Applications pending therein and the same are also disposed of accordingly.

6 This order will be digitally signed by the Private Secretary/Personal Assistant of this Court. All concerned will act on production by fax or email of a digitally signed copy of this order.
