Petitioner, in this petition challenged the order for recovery of amount of Rs.2,91,711/- from the payment of gratuity of the petitioner. As per respondent petitioner has not completed computer course by Government approved Computer Institutes, within a period of two years from 01/01/2001. She has applied for voluntary retirement and Block Development Officer relieved her on 31/10/2017. There was recovery of 2,91,711/-, in view of Government Resolution dated 20/07/2002, by which, if such certificate is not obtained, one increment of the employee will be stopped. It is also mentioned that if she attained the age of 50 years without obtaining certificate, employee will be exempted. However, it is informed by respondents and also admitted by petitioner that she applied for voluntary retirement before attaining age of 50 years. As such, no benefits can be granted of the said Government Resolution to the petitioner. As such, petition is dismissed.
